

WAR FILM TO BE SEEN AT FAIRVIEW

Government Picture Will Be Shown Under Auspices of Legion Post.

FAIRVIEW, Aug. 4.—According to announcement made last evening, "Plashes of Action," the official moving picture of the World War, will be exhibited in the Globe Theater at Fairview on August 9 and 10, under the auspices of the Paw Paw post of the American Legion.

The scenes in "Plashes of Action" were taken under fire by photographers of the United States Signal Corps, who were with the troops from the training camps to the trenches. The film is five reels in length and includes the best of the million of feet of film ground out by the army camera men during the war. Nearly every Division is shown. "Plashes of Action," it is said, has attracted capacity crowds in all the large cities and Fairview fans are expected to be equally interested. Following a record-breaking attendance in New York, the owner of a syndicate of theaters said, "The popularity of this film convinces me that we are now far enough away from the World War to sit down and coolly see what modern warfare is."

Tickets may be obtained at the First National Bank at 25 and 35 cents.

Kills Copperhead
A large copperhead snake measuring nearly three feet in length attacked men at work in the Tennant stone quarry near Fairview yesterday morning and only after a desperate struggle were the men able to conquer the reptile. John Statler succeeded finally in landing the death blow. Mr. Statler remarked that it was the largest he had ever seen. Others who assisted Mr. Statler were Paddy Inghram and Junior Statler.

Small Vote At Polls
Not more than one-third of the citizens turned out for Tuesday's election. Several reasons have been advanced for the absence, but chiefly, according to local forecasts, many would not declare their political faith while still another large number, according to information given out by John Statler, will support the Socialist party in the November election.

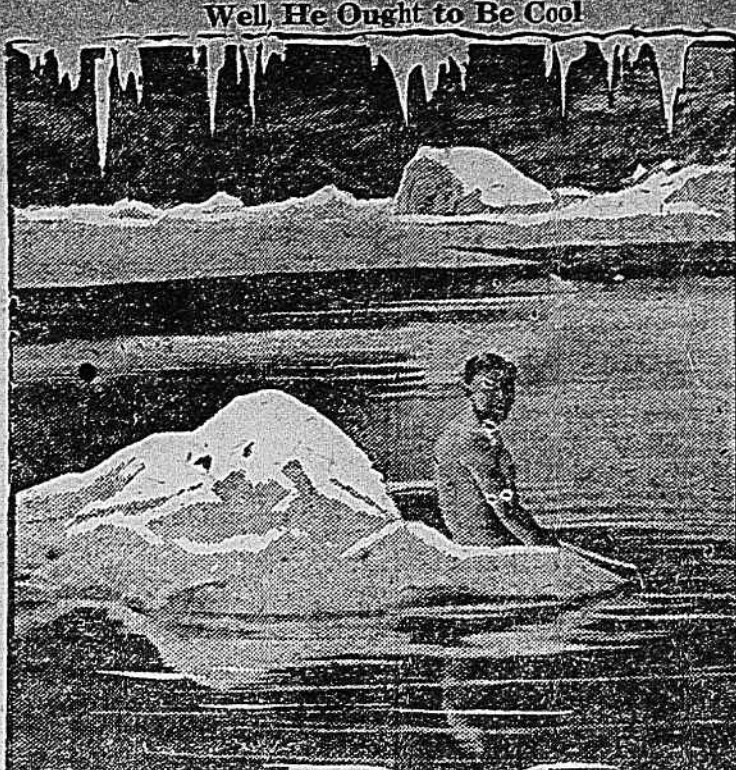

To Be Big Fry
That the baseball game scheduled for the Jarvis grounds Sunday afternoon between the local Independents and the Clarksburgers will be a hard fought contest is believed by most local fans, and much speculation as to the final outcome is resulting. Clarksburg has won every game played this season and has met some very good teams. Fairview does not have a clean slate, yet the brand of ball put up by the locals will insure that the visitors will have to walk away with a few runs. It is betting that Fairview will emerge winner by a 2 to 1 score. While Fairview has had some bad luck in hard-fought contests this season, yet she has won a majority of games played, losing but five games out of a total of fifteen. A large crowd is expected when the game is called Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A Close Contest.
The hottest and the most interesting campaign that will be waged locally this fall will be the race between B. A. Ammons of Fairview and D. D. Cunningham of Baxter for the presidency of the local board of education. Both men are well known and number a host of friends throughout the district. Mr. Cunningham was formerly a member of the board of education and was mainly responsible, it is said, for the organization of the high school at Fairview several years ago. He is a progressive farmer and is interested in the progress of education, according to prevalent reports. The name can be said of Mr. Ammons who owns one of the finest farms in Paw Paw District and who has two children, a son and a daughter, in the teaching profession. His son, John Ammons, will teach the seventh grade at Fairview this year, and Miss Bessie Ammons, the daughter, was teacher of the Sugar Grove School last year and it was mainly through her efforts that it became one of the first standardized schools in the state. Both will poll a large number of votes, and neither's election will be conceded until after the final count.

Personals.
Marion A. Gump and son Draper have taken a contract for the painting of the Grays Flats School and began work yesterday. The Misses Elizabeth and Adda Mae Inghram were visiting friends on Washington street yesterday evening.

Miss Margaret Cowan, teacher of the Fairview third grade last year, has returned from a several weeks' visit with friends in Butte, Pa.

Word was recently received from J. F. Copp, last year's athletic director in the Fairview High School, who has been spending his vacation with his parents in Washington College, Tenn., that he would return to West Virginia next week and would be on hand

An annual reduction sale is in progress at the Yost Bros. Store, and much interest is being manifested in the bargains being offered.

Charles Loadman lost his claim for Fairview checker championship yesterday evening when Dote Ammons won from him in five games out of seven played.

A frame building is being erected at the Grant Town schools for chemical toilets. This addition will greatly improve the sanitary condition of the school and will no doubt pave the way for a large brick addition, which will include a gymnasium, auditorium and other class rooms.

Mrs. Charles Williams has been ill at her home on Main street.

Mrs. F. W. Wright, who has been ill for several weeks, is slowly recovering.

Lee Snyder of the firm Wade & Snyder, painters, has been doing an extensive business in Fairview recently, but his chief interests still remain at Pumpkin Center.

Miss Iva Barr, a former student in the local high school, but more recently a student in a California Business College, will re-enter the Fairview High School this year.

MATHILDE RETICENT.
CHERBOURG, France, Aug. 4.—Miss Mathilde McCormick, daughter of Harold F. McCormick, refused to be interviewed concerning her engagement to Max Oser, the Swiss riding master, when she landed here today from the steamship, Maestric.

"It's a shame I can't be left alone," she declared. "I should like once for all not to be pestered and to be free like any other woman."

HUNTINGTON, Aug. 4.—A milk bucket was knocked out of the hand of John Spray, suburban farmer, here last night when a tree under which he was sheltered was hit by lightning. Spray and his son were slightly injured.

FIGHTERS UNABLE TO CHECK FOREST FIRES

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 4.—From the Rocky Mountains in Montana to the Columbia River in Washington, thousands of men are fighting forest fires which, with nature apparently siding with them have according to Theodore Goodyear, assistant state forester, rendered Washington virtually helpless before them. Calls for help are going unheeded in many instances, he said, with the fire wardens fighting the worst fires and leaving the others to burn themselves out.

One fire fighter on Foehl Creek, Idaho, was killed yesterday, when a burning tree fell on him. Many hundred acres of fine government or private stands of timber have been burned over or are on fire. Glacier National Park, and Blackfoot forest are affected.

BLACK DECLARES HE'S NOT MADE LAST PUTT

SAN JOSE, Cal., Aug. 4.—Replying to a telegram from Gene Sarazan, young Pittsburgh professional who recently won the national open golf title from him by a single stroke, John Black, California champion, from his cot in a hospital here said, "Tell Gene I have not made my last putt." Black, whose life was despaired of when he was brought to the hospital after an automobile accident which cost the life of his companion, thought a moment then added, "Not by a damn sight."

MUNSEY ACCUSED.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Frank A. Munsey, owner and publisher of the New York Herald, was charged today in the Senate by Senator Gooding of Idaho, chairman of the Republican agricultural tariff bloc, with fighting the Administration Tariff Bill in the interest of his investments in Europe.
